

ANNOUNCING

[NEW] Outreach To Target Populations Under Trafficking in Persons Program

WHO: Faith-based, community-based, for-profit and non-profit organizations.

WHAT: To increase the identification of trafficking victims, to encourage victims to leave their trafficked condition by counseling them on the programs available to assist victims, by alerting local law enforcement where appropriate, and by connecting the victims with a qualified service provider prepared to assist victims of trafficking. This grant program seeks to provide financial assistance to existing programs of outreach to populations among which victims of human trafficking may be found (whether or not current activities to such populations pertain to trafficking).

WHEN: Applications due September 28, 2004.

AWARD AMOUNT: Approximately $1 million dollars will fund up to 15 awards.
